

LEAGUE OF THE LEXICON

— THE GAME ABOUT WORDS —

THE GAME FOR WORD LOVERS ADDS THREE NEW EDITIONS

LEAGUE OF THE LEXICON, the bestselling quiz game about words and language, has launched three special edition games: a SLANG EDITION (by slang lexicographer Jonathon Green, author of Green's Dictionary of Slang and more), GLOBAL EDITION (by polyglot linguist Gaston Dorren, author of Babel and Lingo) and JUNIOR EDITION (by the game's creator, Joshua Blackburn).

Since launching in 2022, League of the Lexicon has been a runaway success. It was the most-backed word game in the history of Kickstarter, 'Game of the Month' at Waterstones and, most recently, awarded 'Recommended to Play' by Mensa Mind Games.

League of the Lexicon includes questions contributed by linguists, lexicographers and word lovers around the world, including Lynne Truss, Michael Rosen, Ben Schott, and Richard Lederer. The special editions are expansions to the main game and are authored by world renowned experts, making them the ultimate question masters. This is the perfect game for word lovers.

The core game is beautifully designed, hand-illustrated by two outstanding artists and includes 2,000 questions in five categories, from archaic words to etymology, usage to wordy trivia. With each expansion pack adding a further 500 questions, League of the Lexicon is the last word in word games.

"A logophile's dream... it's a triumph!" Stephen Fry

"A fiendish delight for all word lovers." Susie Dent
